

Free seminar: Safeguarding your rights in later years

Advocare and the Alliance for the Prevention of Elder Abuse: Western Australia are holding a free seminar for seniors and other interested community members about ways of safeguarding your rights in later years, and the agencies available to assist.

Monday 16th June 2008
9.00 am - 1.30 pm

Royal Park Hall
180 Charles Street (cnr Vincent Street)
West Perth

Morning tea and lunch provided

The seminar, to be opened by the Honourable Sue Ellery MLC, Minister for Child Protection, Communities, Women's Interests, Seniors and Volunteering, will feature presentations from a number of agencies who are involved in promoting and protecting the rights of older people, including Advocare, the Office of the Public Advocate, the Older Persons Rights Service, the Public Trustee, and the WA Police. A mini-expo of other relevant services will take place over lunch.

To register for this event, please contact Advocare by 6th of June 2008:

Advocare, Unit 1, Byblos House
190 Abernethy Road
Belmont 6104

Phone: 9479 7566
Fax: 9479 7599
Email: admin@advocare.org.au

